

Alleged gangland boss poised to fight gun charges

By Cassandra Morgan
January 17, 2024

Alleged Melbourne underworld boss Fadi Haddara will fight fresh firearms charges.

Haddara faced Melbourne Magistrates Court on Wednesday when his lawyer, gangland barrister Zarah Garde-Wilson, told Magistrate Adriano Serratore her client would contest the charges in their entirety.

Haddara has been charged with a total of five offences including possessing unregistered firearms, possessing firearms while prohibited from doing so, handling an allegedly stolen Glock handgun and affray

Subscribe to AAPNews

To read this article (and many more) click on the Subscribe button below and gain access to AAPNews.

Already registered? Sign in here (/signin?redirect_to=/news/alleged-gangland-boss-poised-to-fight-gun-charges)

What is AAPNews?

For the first time, Australian Associated Press is delivering news straight to the consumer.

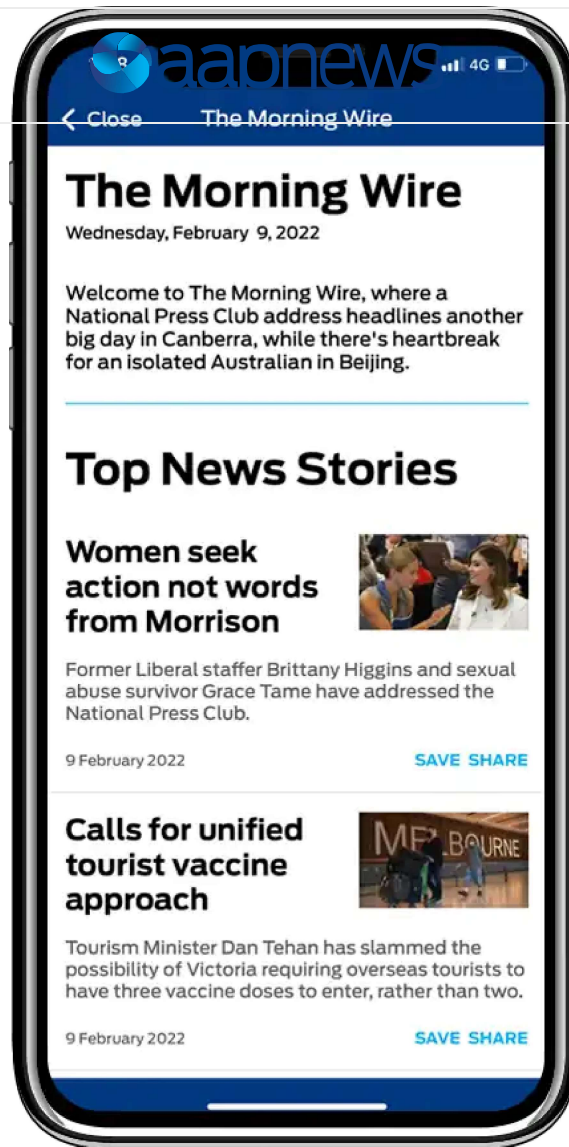

No ads. No spin. News straight-up.

Not only do you get to enjoy high-quality news delivered straight to your desktop or device, you do so in the knowledge you are supporting media diversity in Australia.

AAP Is Australia's only independent newswire service, free from political and commercial influence, producing fact-based public interest journalism across a range of topics including politics, courts, sport, finance and entertainment.

The Morning Wire

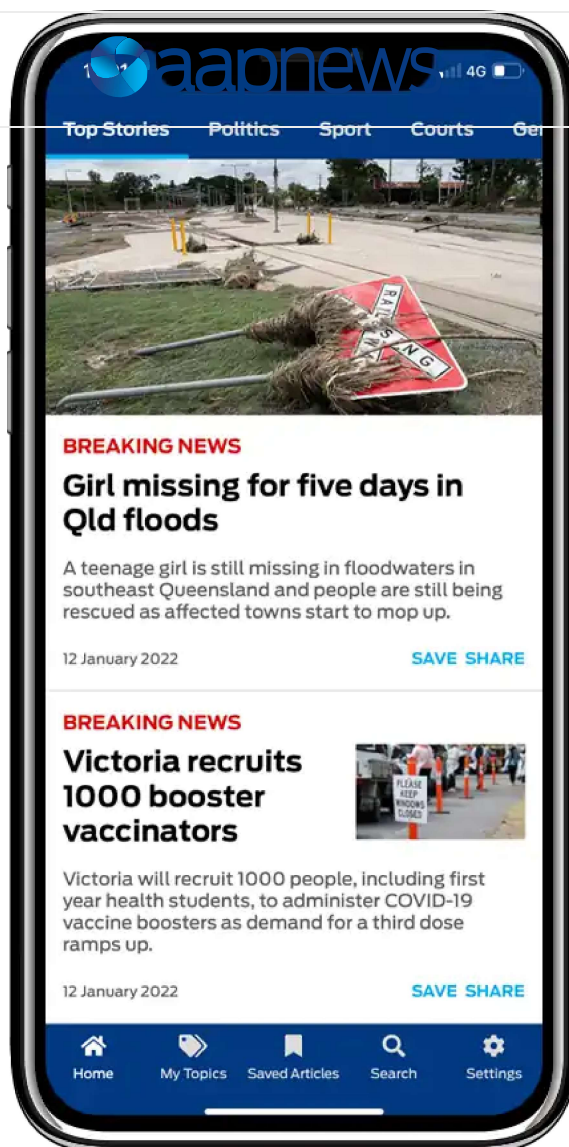

Wake up to AAPNews' morning news bulletin delivered straight to your inbox or mobile device, bringing you up to speed with all that has happened overnight at home and abroad, as well as setting you up what the day has in store.

Breaking News

Be the first to know when major breaking news happens.

Notifications will be sent to your device whenever a big story breaks, ensuring you are never in the dark when the talking points happen.

Focused Content

Enjoy the best of AAP's specialised Topics in Focus. AAP has reporters dedicated to bringing you hard news and feature content across a range of specialised topics including Environment, Agriculture, Future Economies, Arts and Refugee Issues.

Subscription Plans

Choose the plan that best fits your needs. AAPNews offers two basic subscriptions, all billed monthly.

Once you sign up, you will have seven days to test out the service before being billed.

Full Access

AU$10

- Enjoy all that AAPNews has to offer
- Access to breaking news notifications and bulletins
- Includes access to all AAPNews' specialised topics

JOIN NOW \(/SIGNIN\)

Student Access

AU$5

- Gain access via a verified student email account

- Enjoy all the benefits of the 'Full Access' at a reduced rate
- Subscription renews each month

JOIN NOW \(/SIGNIN\)

Annual Access

AU$99

- All the benefits of the 'Full Access' subscription at a discounted rate
- Subscription automatically renews after 12 months

JOIN NOW \(/SIGNIN\)

AAPNews also offers enterprise deals for businesses so you can provide an AAPNews account for your team, organisation or customers. Click here (<mailto:aapnews@aap.com.au>) to contact AAP to sign-up your business today.

(/auth/google)(/auth/facebook)(https://www.aapnews.com.au/news/alleged-gangland-boss-poised-to-fight-gun-charge:

Your email address

JOIN NOW

Already have an account? Login here (/signin)

SEVEN DAYS FREE

Download the app

(https://apps.apple.com/au/app/aapnews/id1590501558)

(https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=au.com.aapnews&hl=en&utm_source=link&utm_campaign=landing-page)

Terms \(/terms\) | Privacy \(/privacy\) | FAQs \(/faqs\) | Contact Us \(mailto:aapnews@aap.com.au\)

Copyright © 2024 AAP. All rights reserved.